PASTOR'S PEN

As we step into the month of October, I sense a fresh stirring in the Spirit, a divine summoning for the Church to rise, refocus, and realign. This is not just another season on the calendar; this is a prophetic moment, and those who have ears to hear must tune in to what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

Across the globe, we are witnessing intensified shaking from wars and rumors of wars to economic instability, political unrest, and an increasing erosion of truth and moral clarity. But this is not a time to fear. It is a time to burn brighter.

In Hebrews 12 the Word reminds us; “whose voice then shook the earth; but now He has promised, saying, “Yet once more I shake not only the earth, but also heaven.” Now this, “Yet once more,” indicates the removal of those things that are being shaken, as of things that are made, that the things which cannot be shaken may remain.” Hebrews 12:26-27.

The shaking is not the enemy's agenda, it is God's invitation to expose what's built on sand and reveal what is truly anchored in the Kingdom. It's the mercy of God, allowing the Church to return to her first love, to purify her worship, and to reignite the fire of Pentecost — not in word only, but in power and truth.

We are being called back to the altar, not merely in church services, but in our homes, in our hearts, and in our daily walk. The Holy Spirit is seeking those who will carry the fire, not just feel it. Those who will stand in the gap, not just spectate. Those who will walk in bold obedience, not cultural compromise.

–Pastor Jennifer Mitchell
