PASTOR'S PEN

We are almost at the mid year mark, what a journey it's been. I want to draw your attention to something the Lord has laid on my heart in the last season. To pursue more, according to God's agenda, we must first seek to understand His will for our lives. This requires intentional prayer, deep scripture study, and a heart open to the leading of the Holy Spirit. Remember, God's agenda is often found in His Word and through His whispers in our daily lives. It is a call to live a life that reflects His love, grace, and truth to those around us. This may mean letting go of personal ambitions that do not serve His purpose. Isaiah 55:8-9 tells us, "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways," declares the Lord. By surrendering our goals to Him, we open ourselves to a greater purpose that can lead to fulfillment and joy. Pursuing more requires action. James 2:26 states, "For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also." We are called to step out in faith, to serve our community, to love our neighbors, and to share the Gospel. Each action we take in obedience to His call brings us closer to the abundant life He has promised. Be richly blessed in the your journey of pursuit for God's agenda for your life.

–Pastor Jennifer Mitchell
