PASTOR'S PEN

The journey from the solemn quiet of Good Friday to the explosion of joy on Resurrection Sunday is a powerful message of the Christian faith. Good Friday is a reminder of the sacrifice and suffering, leaving us contemplating the immense love poured out on the cross. But the story doesn't end there. As we open our hearts to the profound message of that cross, we prepare ourselves for the transformative power of the resurrection. Scripture overflows with evidence of this power, from the empty tomb (Matthew 28:6) to the risen Christ's appearances to his disciples (John 20:19–29). This Easter season, let the resurrected Christ empower you to love your neighbor as yourself (Mark 12:31), becoming living embodiments of the hope and redemption that defines this greatest day in history. Be the message of love, forgiveness, and new life this Easter, reflecting the transformative power of the risen Christ to a world in need. Why? Because a lot can happen in three days. Invite someone to the opportunity of encountering CHRIST this season.

–Pastor Jennifer Mitchell
