PASTOR'S PEN

As summer begins, I hope this season brings your family abundant fun, joy, and cherished memories. Summer offers a wonderful opportunity for relaxation and strengthening of bonds, including our relationship with God. In this spirit, let us encourage our children to engage in meaningful, spiritual activities. We can motivate them to connect with God through fun and innovative experiences, such as hosting family fun nights or community events where they can learn compassion and teamwork. Our church has planned a few events where your children can participate.

As stated in Deuteronomy 6:7, “Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up.” Let this summer be a time of intentional teaching and discussion about faith at home. Additionally, I encourage each family to find a Bible verse that resonates with them and commit to memorizing it together. This can foster discussions about its significance and how it can influence daily life. Let us carry God's love and blessings into our homes, nurturing our families' growth and unity this season. This is the culture we want to continue building and creating. Culture is important and it starts in our homes!

Sending my love and prayers for abundant blessings upon your families this summer. May God's peace and joy be with each of you as you create lasting memories together.

–Pastor Jennifer Mitchell
