PASTOR'S PEN

As we enter the month of November, the Spirit of the Lord is reminding us that the way we finish matters to Heaven. We are not called to end in weariness, but to conclude with the same passion, faith, and fire with which we began. For our God who is Alpha and Omega, the Beginning and the End, is faithful to complete every good work He has started in us. "Being confident of this very thing, that He who has begun a good work in you will complete it until the day of Jesus Christ." Philippians 1:6 (NKJV) November is a month of divine alignment. The Lord is calling His people to refocus, to shake off discouragement, and to set their eyes once again on the eternal prize. This is not a time to retreat, but to rise, strengthened by the Holy Spirit, walking in renewed vision, and pressing toward the mark of God's high calling.

"Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended; but one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead, I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus." Philippians 3:13–14 (NKJV)

In this season, the Lord is rekindling the flame within His people. Where fatigue has tried to settle in, the wind of the Spirit is blowing fresh strength. Where hope has been tested, divine encouragement is being released. The same God who carried you through every storm will empower you to finish strong and begin anew with fresh grace and greater glory.

Therefore, let us not grow weary in doing good, for there is a harvest waiting for those who endure.

"And let us not grow weary while doing good, for in due season we shall reap if we do not lose heart." Galatians 6:9 (NKJV)

This month, set aside time to dwell in His presence, to listen for His voice, and to let His Spirit renew your strength. As we yield to Him, He will cause us to soar like eagles—running and not growing weary, walking and not fainting (Isaiah 40:31).

Beloved, the Lord is saying: "Behold, I make all things new." The year may be ending, but His work in you is only gaining momentum. Stand firm, stay faithful, and finish strong in the power of His Spirit.

With love, grace, and blessings!

–Pastor Jennifer Mitchell
