PASTOR'S PEN

As we near the end of the year, there is a strong nudge in my spirit for oneness and togetherness. How do we love better and love well? How can we step into our God-given identity, embrace our differences and serve to advance His Kingdom within this body of Christ.

Congregating requires empowerment from outside ourselves, not I “but Christ who lives in me” (Galatians 3:20). When Jesus interceded for us, He prayed not that we would bow to biblical authority, or even that we would be right. He begged God to make us one (John 17:21). “This is how everyone will know that you are my disciples, when you love each other” (John 13:35).

What does it mean to be a part of the body of Christ? There is a natural propensity in our culture of rugged individualism, consumerism, and self-protectiveness which is discomfoting truth. Togetherness is hard. We are His body. I pray the Lord brings a deeper revelation to us in this season. Thank you Jesus for light that illuminates our path and guides our steps as we walk this journey and become a living, written epistle to our neighbors and the world around us.

Never once did Jesus command us to love the lovely, loveable, and loving. Never did He allow His disciples to waste time attempting to determine which sin was the worst or whom to ban from discipleship. Welcoming outcasts and saving sinners were His obsessions. Or as John Wesley put it, “Salvation for all!”

“I pray they will be one, Father, just as you are in me and I am in you. I pray that they also will be in us, so that the world will believe that you sent me.”

(John 17:21)
